New officers sworn to office for 1970 by Estergren. Ina Crawford, City Clerk; Mayor Lowell Taylor; L.P. Disharoon, Town Marshal; Edward Laritz, Iva Booher, Irene Balsley as Councilmen.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read. Councilman Laritz moved to accept minutes as read. Seconded by Councilman Taylor.

Finance Report read, Councilman Laritz moved to accept report as read. Seconded by Councilman Booher. Motion carried.

Attorney Estergren reported the town ordinance does not cover selling used cars in a C2 zoning area. Changing the existing ordinance would mean all C2 property would be changed accordingly. On Nov 13, 1969, James B. Tribble, Trib's Auto Repair and Service wrote a letter to the town regretting his violation of the ordinance. He requested permission to sell used cars on a small scale. Councilman Laritz moved to not accept the used car lot to operate in the town. Seconded by Councilman Hutchison moved to pay the $10 membership fee for 1970 to the League of Municipalities. Seconded by Councilman Booher. Carried unanimously.

Attorney Estergren reports a name change of Communications Casting Corporation would be known as T. V. Cable of Fort Walton Beach.

Original document is skewed

The new store building, Moore Handley being built over the high pressure gas transmission line belonging to the Okaloosa Gas Company has created a problem. Attorney Estergren re commended perhaps the estimated costs to reroute the line be shared by the FWB Lumber Company, Okaloosa Gas District and the Town of Cinco Bayou.

Mayor Gibson recommended replacing street signs now missing. Repainting dip signs on Opp Blvd and moving stop sign on Opp Blvd to permit better visibility to passing cars. Repaint and clean park signs. Repair picnic tables at Laguna Park on Yacht Club Drive check with Okaloosa Asphalt in references to asphalt mix purchased which cannot be used for patching streets. Consider paving of Hughes Ave to Beal Street getting aid from FWB and The County Contacting Bill Landreth and Jim Barfield previously.

Allen Davis previously received $50 annually for cleaning parks, he stated he wishes to work on an hourly basis during the year for the city.

Being no further business Councilman Laritz moved the meeting be adjourned. Seconded by Councilman Doohar. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Irene E. Balsley, City Clerk
